

TRAINED RABBITS DO GARDEN LABOR

ITHACA, May 14.—No longer need farmers rack their backs and get stooping shoulders by hoeing out weeds, according to a statement made by James I. Reed of Trumansburg.

By careful breeding and systematic training, Mr. Reed, so he claims, has produced rabbits which will go into a garden patch and devour all the weeds, but not touch a single cultivated plant.

During the last two years a special plot of ground has been devoted to the training of rabbits. They were kept without food for several days and then released in the plot which had been prepared by putting on the cultivated plants a chemical which would make the animals ill. After repeated trials the rabbits seemed to understand that they might only eat weeds with impunity, says Mr. Reed. Now, when his rabbits become cluttered with weeds he says he starves his rabbits for several days and then lets them into the garden, where they effectively do the work that formerly required hoeing.

SOAP ON HAIR CAUSES DANDRUFF, SCALP GETS DRY, HAIR FALLS OUT

Girls! Get a 25 cent bottle and try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse."

After washing your hair with soap always apply a little Danderine to the scalp to invigorate the hair and prevent dandruff. Better still, use soap as sparingly as possible, and instead have a "Danderine Hair Cleanse." Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one strand at a time. This will remove dust, dirt and excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amazed, your hair will not only be clean, but it will be wavy, fluffy and abundant, and possess an incomparable softness and lustre. Besides cleansing and beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; stimulates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

Men! Ladies! You can surely have lots of charming hair. Get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine. Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it.

FOE OF MONOPOLIES, WILLIAM P. BURR, IS DEPRIVED OF OFFICE

Man Who Won Cheaper Gas Fight Is Ousted as Franchise Head.

William P. Burr, senior assistant corporation counsel, who was for ten years in charge of the Division of Franchises and who carried on the eighty-cent gas fight and the so-called "Death Avenue" case against the New York Central Railroad, resigned today. He quits at the request of Corporation Counsel Polk.

Mr. Burr's resignation will not take effect until July 1. In the mean time he will acquaint his successor with the litigation still pending in the Division of Franchises. No intimation as to the underlying reason for Mr. Polk's demand for his subordinate's resignation was given today. The correspondence, however, was made public. Mr. Polk's letter to Mr. Burr said:

May 5, 1914.

Dear Mr. Burr:
I regret to have to ask you for your resignation, to take effect July 1, 1914. The Mayor and I have in mind certain changes in your department which makes this step necessary. With many regrets and best wishes,

FRANK L. POLK,

Corporation Counsel.

Mr. Burr's reply was:

May 8, 1914.

Dear Mr. Polk:
I herewith tender my resignation as assistant to the Corporation Counsel, to take effect July 1, 1914, or at such earlier date as I may be able to close up matters pending in my charge, if this is agreeable to you. I need not say I will be glad at any time to confer with you or with my successor when appointed, and render any assistance in my power in respect to the affairs of this division. Permit me to avail myself of this opportunity to express appreciation of your courtesy and my sincere wish for your success.

Very sincerely yours,

WILLIAM P. BURR.

The last big task undertaken by Mr. Burr was the city's suit against the Consolidated Subway Company for an accounting involving more than $25,000,000, which was tried before Hamilton Odell, Adrian H. Larkin and George Gordon Battle as a referee board, and which is now awaiting decision.

Mr. Burr was appointed during Mayor McClellan's administration and served under Corporation Counsels Delany, Ellison, Pendleton and Watson.

THIEF GETS PRIZED VIOLIN.

Instrument Once Owned by Theodore Thomas Fished From Window.

CHICAGO, May 14.—An Amati violin, said to have been sold by the late Theodore Thomas to former Congressman Nicholas Longworth of Cincinnati, son-in-law of Theodore Roosevelt, was stolen early to-day from the show window of a Wabash avenue dealer in rare musical instruments. The thief, after smashing the plate glass, used a long pole to reach the violin.

"Mine Is the Genuine"

You have no idea
the work my O-Cedar Mop saves me. Or how bright, clean and beautiful it makes my floors and woodwork.
It's mere play to use it. When it is soiled I merely shake the dirt out and when very dirty I simply wash it.

O-Cedar Mop
Polish Mop
(Reg. U. S. Pat. Office and all principal countries.)
Two Sizes—$1 and $1.50

Cleans, dusts and polishes all at one time. It is treated with the famous O-Cedar Polish which "cleans as it polishes." It will give you complete satisfaction first, last and all the time, and is sold with that understanding. The O-Cedar Polish Mop does more than merely polish—it cleans and dusts and gathers all the dust from everywhere.
